

PetroPower Refinery

Digital transformation Project

Situation Statement

A petroleum refining company PetroPower, is facing significant challenges in managing its operations, supply chain, as The current systems used for finance, inventory management, maintenance and Production are causing inefficiencies and data discrepancies which leads to delays in decision-making , Inefficient resource management & Decreased Productivity.

Need: To address these challenges and streamline operations, the company has decided to implement an integrated ERP system in collaboration with Digi-Future solutions , a leading company in digitalization processes and that's to centralize data management, improve collaboration among departments, enhance visibility into key business processes, and ultimately drive better business performance , customer satisfaction & decision making“.

Effect

- Inefficient Operations
- Poor Decision-Making
- Lack of Real time insights
- Over/Under Stocking

Impact

- Low Profitability & Productivity
- Customers dissatisfaction
- Limitation in company's growth